Welcome to Salvo's Salumeria

The food in our café is sourced with care as the provenance of the ingredients is important to us.

We boil our hams daily and use free range chicken and naturally reared veal and Angus beef, local when possible.

Our bread is baked without flavour improvers or preservatives and our greengrocer David Barrett tries to source locally whenever possible and also supplies us with seasonal fruit and vegetables from Italy.

We use pasta from Naples, Puglia, Sicily or Abruzzo, the best areas for pasta production, the canned tomatoes (Pomodora, which are available to purchase) in our sauces are ripened in Italy and have a wonderful flavour.

We use extra virgin cold pressed olive oil and naturally brewed wine vinegars in our dressings. Our vegetables in oil and olives are from a friend's Uncle in Salvo's homeland of Sicily.

Mozzarella is delivered weekly from Italy.

Many of the Italian cheeses and salami we stock are from small artisan farms.

A warm welcome
